Fiddlers and quilts, vaudeville & art, kept almost everyone busy

Above—
Diane Carnright displayed her popular paintings, some of the fiddlers performed at the Senior Nutrition Program, fabric art was hung for all to admire at the annual Quilt Show, and Karen James & Mark Boozer did their Laugh-In routine at Vaudeville.

Photographers included Jewel Cleawater, Lito Castillo, Kattie Allen, and Hop David.

The first weekend of February is usually one of the biggest, busiest weekends of the year for Ajo, and this year was no exception with the annual quilt show, vaudeville show, fiddlers' contest and show, artists festival, and more offering plenty to do and see.

The annual Piecemakers quilt show, Quilting in the Sonoran Desert, displayed fabric art at the Curley School Auditorium.

The Ajo Community Players staged its 17th annual Vaudeville Show in an eclectic performance put together from local talent at Dicus Auditorium.

An artists festival, intended to become an annual event, was held in the Plaza on Friday & Saturday. They weren't the only ones — the public library has an art show mounted with the work of the Gibson Artists. The work of Joyce Dodd was featured at the Chicken Coop and Conrad Lippert held his annual studio tour.

Elsewhere in town there were food sales and other events — such as a Super Bowl party at the bowling alley, a rummage sale at the Federated Church, a barbecue dinner at the Catholic Church, and free events at the library.

The 21 family homes in the complex include two- and three-bedroom units for CBP personnel permanently assigned in the Ajo and Lukeville areas.

Housing facility drew crowd for grand opening last Thursday

The atmosphere was formal yet festive for the grand opening celebration at the 55 Sahuaro government housing facility last Thursday afternoon. Guided and casual tours of one of the three-bedroom units were available before and after the organized part of the ceremony, and not a few audible oohs-and-aahs snuck out at the sight of shiny hardwood flooring, stainless steel appliances, and walk-in closets and storage spaces.

The 21 family homes at the site range from 1,276 to 1,500 square-feet and are designed to be climate-appropriate and energy-efficient, exceeding the Silver certification in Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design that specification called for. In fact, noted project manager Robin Coachman, the facility even surpasses a Gold LEED rating and a Platinum rating is being pursued. The site includes a centrally located recreational space with three open-air pavilions and a community post office box area.

The facility will be used to house mission-critical Customs & Border Protection personnel and their families. It is available on a first-come, first-served basis, regardless of rank or pay grade, for CBP personnel permanently assigned in the Ajo or Lukeville areas.

Project manager Coachman was master of ceremonies for the event. He said he has overseen the construction of a number of Border Patrol stations and ports of entry, but feels that the 55 Sahuaro facility is the highlight of his career.

Mitch Merriam, CBP Joint Field Command – Arizona deputy commander, explained that the vision and the work at 55 Sahuaro has been five years in the making. He described the complex as long-overdue housing that will allow local officers and agents to avoid the 50- to 100-mile commute of previous years. He said he looks forward to the possible completion of the project with the construction of additional units and he praised the community of Ajo for embracing the people coming to live in the housing facility.

Ruth Cox, regional administrator with the General Services Administration, pointed out that there are 3 kilowatts of photovoltaic panels on each roof, and it is estimated each house will require 75% less energy than other houses of comparable size. She said the use of natural daylight and cross ventilation are key components of the units.

Ajo's Carol Yokum, president of the Western Pima County Community Council, said she is delighted with the new ideas and plans that the housing facility is bringing to the community. She said the new faces will certainly bring energy to the area, and she reminded everyone that Ajo is a safe and friendly town "where the summer spends the winter."

Kraig Hill, senior project manager with Sundt Construction, said he hopes the occupants and the people of Ajo enjoy the homes as much as his company enjoyed building them. He noted that architects Kegan & Fe Tom came up with the exterior color scheme after observing buildings in Ajo.

Karl Calvo, executive director of CBP Facilities Management & Engineering, talked briefly about what it takes to manage 4500 facilities nationwide. Like Merriam, he expressed hope that the other half of the complex can be completed in the near future. He praised Pima County for ensuring that the project became a reality, and noted that the facility achieved a Department of Homeland Security award in the category of "Building for the Future."

School board to meet Tuesday & Wednesday

The Ajo Unified School District board has scheduled its study session meeting for Tuesday, February 5, and will meet in regular session on Wednesday, February 6. Both meetings begin at 5:30 p.m. in the board meeting room on the AUSD campus. All meetings are open to the public.

Pot dispensary, garden groups on WPCCC agenda

The Western Pima County Community Council will hold its regular meeting on Thursday, February 7, at Bud Walker Park at 7 p.m.

This month's agenda will include a presentation by Margot Bissell of the Cabeza Prieta National Wildlife Refuge on access to the refuge. Nina Altshul of the Ajo CSA will offer an update on the status of community gardens. Kathleen Stevens, a volunteer with the Ajo Community Garden Consortium, will discuss programs and partnerships in the community.

Deb Miller, special assistant to Supervisor Sharon Bronson will also update the council and meeting participants on county issues, and will be available an hour before the meeting for individual meetings.

There will also be a presentation on an Ajo-based marijuana-dispensary application which is scheduled to be heard by the county's Board of Adjustment on Tuesday, February 19. Tim Moore has applied for a variance to open the dispensary at the former Indulgence liquor store on North Second Avenue. A variance is required because the property is less than 1000 feet from a church. Letters to neighbors living within 300 feet have been sent.

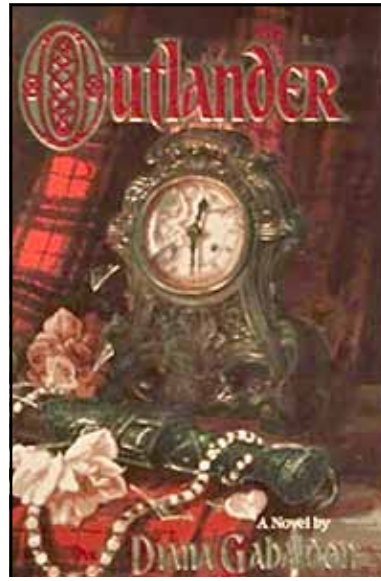

The agenda will include an update on activities at the Ajo Unified School District, as well as those by representatives from local law-enforcement agencies.

There will be the customary call to the floor for issues to be raised, and an opportunity to mention upcoming community events.

WPCCC meetings are open to the public.

The 17th annual Vaudeville Show included old favorites — the Divas & Elvis and the little cheerleaders — and new favorite Bobby Q. Narcho who performed original compositions on the piano.

Folks from the fiddlers joined in, and others provided what one attendee called a “laugh riot”. There were too many acts to picture all of them.

Spaghetti dinner & show is at VFW

The annual VFW Ladies Auxiliary Spaghetti Dinner Show will be at the local VFW hall, 1764 North Second Avenue, on Saturday, February 9, with dinner beginning at 5 p.m. and the show at 6 p.m.

The show will feature Karen & the Divas along with other local talent. A dance will follow. The meal will be prepared by Chef Ron Taoka and assistant Priscilla McAuslan.

There will be a raffle of a Kindle Fire and a Nikon camera as well as several door prizes donated by local merchants. Profits from the dinner and raffle go to the VFW post's cancer programs.

The VFW Ladies Auxiliary points out that this year's show will be open house so there will be no smoking in the hall, only in the cantina.

For more information, see related ad in this issue.

Thanks to all who participated in the very successful Claire Bistline Benefit Dance/Auction.

Finger masks to be 2nd Saturday topic

Jackie Andes, a local artist, will teach a class on finger dance masks Saturday, February 9, as part of this month's Second Saturday program in the Plaza.

Andes will explore the story of the Inuit and their food and goddess legends, and why finger mask dancing was developed to honor and memorialize these events.

"Mask Making: Inuit Masks and the Legend of Sedna" will be presented at 2:30 p.m. at the Plaza Gallery in the southeast corner of the Plaza. The program is free and open to the public.

Register now to give blood & run

There is still time to sign up for the upcoming United Blood Services blood drive at Desert Senita Community Health Center. Anyone interested may contact Oscar Reyes at 387-5086. Reyes may also be contacted to register for the upcoming Road Runner Rampage 5K and 10K.

DSCHC director Fran Driver said a number of people signed up for the blood drive and race at the recent health fair, but many more are hoped for. She noted that Goli Mostoufi and the Outreach Department worked long hours in planning and organizing the health fair, and Driver hopes that more people will take advantage of upcoming opportunities.

Best-selling author to speak at Dicus

Diana Gabaldon, New York Times best-selling author of the Outlander series, will be in Ajo Saturday, February 9. Gabaldon will be the featured speaker at 1 p.m. in the Dicus Auditorium, as part of the Friends of the Library author series. The event is free and open to the public.

According to Friends of the Library member Carolee Kohn, Gabaldon started the Outlander series quite by accident. She decided to write a novel for practice to learn what it took to write a novel and to decide if she really wanted to do it. Out of that came a historical fiction book with some time-travel thrown into the mix. It begins with a young English woman who goes to Scotland with her husband in 1946 for their second honeymoon. On a walk by herself one day, she comes across a circle of stones, walks into them and disappears into the year 1743. From this one story came seven more books.

Gabaldon has three degrees in science: zoology, marine biology, and quantitative behavioral ecology and an honorary degree as doctor of humane letters. She spent 12 years as a university professor with expertise in scientific computation before beginning to write fiction. She's written scientific articles and textbooks, worked as a contributing editor of the MacMillan "Encyclopedia of Computers", founded the scientific-computation journal Science of Software Quarterly and written numerous comic book scripts for Walt Disney.

She and her husband have three adult children and live mostly in Scottsdale.

ISDA seeks Plaza friends

The Friends of the Plaza is a new volunteer group under the International Sonoran Desert Alliance umbrella, according to ISDA volunteer Chris Manson who is organizing the group. Membership is open to everyone who has an interest in helping out. An information session is planned for Thursday, February 7, at 2 p.m. at the Oasis Cafe to introduce the group and the priorities.

The group's work area includes the Plaza park and buildings, said Manson. "The goal of the volunteers will be to move the priority projects forward to 'implementation', so I think much of the work could be physical."

Manson said there will be volunteer spots for those with specific skills, and other opportunities for those who just want to help out and become involved. An email contact list will be used for communication, but the group also hopes to have weekly coffee chats at the Oasis.

Manson noted that while fundraising will be required for many of the costly items on ISDA's Plaza list, some enhancements just need a coordinated approach by willing volunteers. Short- and long-term actions will be part of most projects.

Second Saturday offers tours, arts, farmers' market

Free tours, a farmers' market, and a mask-making workshop will all be part of the featured activities in this month's Second Saturday on February 9.

The day will begin with an 8:30 a.m. Bates Well tour, leaving from the south side of the Plaza. There are 10 spots offered in a van, while others can caravan in their own vehicles. Reservations for van space must be made by Friday noon, February 8, by calling 387-6849.

The Farmers' Market takes place in the Plaza from 9 to 11 a.m., but growers warn that pickings may be slimmer than usual after a recent javelina rampage.

Artists and their works will be featured in the Plaza from 9 a.m. to noon.

Guided tours begin at the Plaza flagpole at 10 a.m. Tours take participants around the Plaza and through the Curley School.

From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. visitors to the Cabeza Prieta National Wildlife Refuge visitor can watch a desert wilderness film, and see the endangered-pupfish pond, and the birding blinds.

Also from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., the Clay Studio in the historic Manual Arts Building on the Curley School campus will be open.

At 2:30 p.m., artist Jackie Andes will facilitate a program and class in mask-making in the Plaza Gallery on the southeast corner of the Plaza.

The sunset tour to Childs Mountain begins at 5:30 p.m. Make required reservations by Friday, February 8, at noon by calling 387-6483.

For more details, call the International Sonoran Desert Alliance at 387-3570.

CPNHA planning lecture & hike for this week

The Cabeza Prieta Natural History Association has planned a hike and a lecture about the Sonoran desert this week.

The nature walk, to Chico Shunie and beyond, will be held on Saturday, February 9. Members are asked to meet at the the Cabeza Prieta National Wildlife Refuge visitor center at 9 a.m. Participants should wear sturdy shoes, bring water, and, if they wish, a snack. The moderate hike will last 3 to 4 hours including driving time to and from the trailhead.

The Tim Lengerich Memorial Lecture Series will take place on Tuesday, February 12, at the Ajo Community Center at Walker Park at 7 p.m. Sue Rutman will give the presentation.

Anyone interested is encouraged to attend.

Mariscal to speak at St. Titus

Pastor Roberto Mariscal of Sonoyta, Mexico, will speak at St. Titus Church on Sunday, February 10, at 5 p.m. Music will be provided by guitarist Liberato Martinez.

St. Titus is located at 1211 North Second Avenue. To learn more, call Pastor Gary Stacy at 602-390-3028.

"Come and enjoy an afternoon of good preaching and music," said Stacy.

Property notices are in the mail

The Pima County Assessor's Office mailed more than 400,000 property valuation notices the last day of January.

The assessor's office noted that most property owners are no longer seeing a drop in their home's value. At the same time, the biggest slide in home values was in Ajo, with a 4% drop. Ajo is one of 22 residential economic districts in the county.

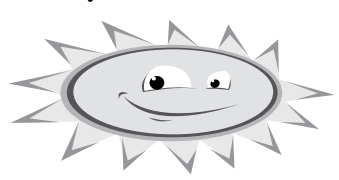

Anyone who feels their valuation is incorrect may file an appeal by April 1. For more information, call 520-724-8172 or visit www.asr.pima.gov and click on "appeals process."

Ajo Community Golf Course
GOLF

By Liz Baca

Have you ever noticed that when a professional golfer finishes his drive he tends to hold his stance and watch the ball fly down the fairway? Notice how there is never any loss of control or balance problem with the pros? One mistake recreational golfers can make is to try to hit the ball too hard and go for the "home run" shot every time.

Good balance is essential to making long, accurate drives. To improve balance, make some swings with your driver while concentrating on keeping the sole of your right shoe in contact with the ground through impact. That, and try not to overswing. So many things to concentrate on in the golf swing, isn't there?

Nine players showed up for the January 28 Skins game with Mike Sheridan and Rich Munier both making a skin on holes #5 and #9.

Meanwhile, back at the clubhouse, Marty was busy breaking all of his New Year's resolutions.

Tuesday, January 29, the Mens club tackled the back nine with these leading the pack: Dave Tavenner third place with a 71; Dick Gates also with a 71 and winning second on the count back. Paul Barnhart shot a 68 for a first place win.

Wednesday eight couples golfed the back nine and after some tie breaking going to the third handicap hole, Paul and Trudy Barnhart ended up in third place at 29.4; Bill and Paula Doremus also at 29.4 to win second place, and Amber and Gordon Bjorkman were on a roll, taking first place for the second week in a row with a 29.2. Wonder if they will run the game again next time?

Last Friday on the front nine we had 34 players out and once again George and Norma Steckel had a lot of ties to figure out. In third place at one under par was the team of Captain Dave Tavenner, Ernie Ochoa, Bea Trueba and Gerry Holm. With a -3 and after going to the third play-off hole, Captain Greg Burton and his team, Butch Keiningham, Jim Carter, Joe Gonzalez and famous Ajo golfer Norma Steckel took second. And in first place also at three under was team captain Jeff Schmidt, Bud Turner, Roy Johnson and Harley Murray.

Now that the fiddlers are gone, the golf course and driving range is open to the public seven days a week from dawn to dusk; the restaurant and bar are back to their regular hours. The clubhouse is closed on Mondays. Some days the kitchen closes early so it's always a good idea to call 387-5011 first.

Is closure still appropriate?

Editor:
Pronghorn recovery well along. Is the seasonal closure still appropriate?

We can now celebrate tremendous progress in the effort to save the Sonoran Pronghorn from extinction. The efforts of numerous people and agencies have multiplied the number of animals from about 20 in 2002, to over 200 now alive in the Arizona desert. We all have had a hand in this recovery by paying the bills for it.

Our sacrifice has been to pay and to stay out of the fawning area from March 15 to July 15 for many years now. From today's perspective that seems, to many, to have been a reasonable sacrifice. The pronghorn will be an endangered species for many years to come as the efforts continue to increase the numbers of individuals and populations. We will continue to pay.

Our loss of access may have been a reasonable price to pay for the Pronghorn in 2002 when there were only about 20 animals alive and the fawning area was not a very busy place. Things have changed so that now there are 200+ live animals.

Other changes include two Border Patrol camps within the range plus all the support activities and Border Patrol officers traveling within the fawning area doing their jobs on and off the roads. Border Patrol officers on the range now emanate from the two permanent camps within the range, and from the Ajo and Wellton offices every day. Support for their camps, plus other DHS programs and other agency travel requirements make for a lot of additional traffic. All told, the amount of traffic out there now shows a huge increase since the travel ban went into effect.

In spite of all this additional traffic and building, the Pronghorn herd is thriving. Perhaps it is time to leave the public roads open. The small amount of traffic that would add would have no measurable effect.

Gun rights

Editor:
In response to John Noyes M.D. burning of all semi auto weapons in the USA.

I'm sure you have upset quite a few gun owners just here in our town of Ajo.

When the Constitution was written by our founding fathers in the 1700s they used cap and ball rifles and pistols, cause that was all that was available to them, times have changed, 60 years ago we used typewriters and copying machines, we now use computers, times have changed.

When hunting with a semi auto shotgun or rifle you are limited to so many rounds in the action and magazine or bolt action here in AZ and elsewhere.

Gun collectors are like any other collectors, they like variety and old and new technology.

We are a free people with the "right to bear arms" under the Constitution which must never be infringed upon.

God bless this great nation!

Living in the hood

Editor
"What a beautiful day in the neighborhood" was sung by Mr. Rogers' children's T.V. show as the opening of each day's program.

This year we returned to a whole new neighborhood across the street, 55 Sahuaro, Government housing. I haven't met any of my new neighbors yet, but if they're anything like the border patrolman who owns his own home next to me, it will be my pleasure. A better neighbor and friend would be hard to find. He watches out for our place during the summer when we are gone, keeps us posted, and when we are here he watches over us, offering his help. The other day the alarm went off in our truck, we couldn't find the key fob to stop it from escalation into a frenzied assortment of assault sounds. Our dear neighbor came running out in bare feet and p.j's (he works night shift) not cross, but relieved we were OK. What a guy! We love him.

I sit on my sunny porch listening to my neighbor's chickens, "The Belles of Bonita", chuckling at how good they have it. I think me, too, I'm warm and safe, "isn't it a beautiful day in the neighborhood" — sometimes I just want to chuckle — maybe crow a bit...

Letter to the editor
Praise is due

Editor:
I have long wanted to write a letter to the people of Ajo, so now it's my turn. We have an absolutely amazing community here, and I sometimes wonder how many of you really appreciate what you have.

Oh I know about the dogs and roosters (and the people that allow them to annoy their neighbors), but that is a small thing.

I hear about the Sheriff Dept and the Border Patrol and all their shortcomings (until we need them). They do a wonderful and often dangerous job in order to protect us and our lifestyles, and we have an awesome ambulance and fire department.

Our community has everything the Big Smoke's (cities) have on a smaller scale (except the pollution).

Nothing to do in Ajo? There is everything to do here. We have arts, culture, sports, recreation. And some of the most pristine part of the US for us to explore. We can just skip down to Mexico at a whim..... What more is there? You name it, and you'll find it here.

We are not "Winter Visitors". We own a home here, pay taxes, and support the local businesses and community projects whenever we can. We spend as much time here as we do in our other home.

I guess my point is that we often don't appreciate how very lucky we are to have found and be part of this little gem in the desert. It is a place where, no matter where you go, you run into friends and acquaintances.... It is such a very friendly place to live.

And, Copper News, to have a local paper as entertaining and informative as you is a bonus. You have given me so much help and support over the past years in publishing my articles concerning events, and editing the adverts I submitted to you (sometimes cutting the deadline a little too close).

My hat's off to you, Ajo!!!

Red Raiders went out fighting

By Robert Sorrels

The steadily improving Red Raiders ran out of season last week. In three well-played losses, Ajo showed improvement and good spirit.

Mesa Prep 70, Ajo 51

Monday, the Raiders faced Mesa Prep on their court. Ajo stormed to a 15-8 lead in the 1st led by Josiah Nez' three 3-pointers. The Raiders played excellent defense holding Mesa's hot guards to a couple of baskets. In the 2nd, Mesa's shooting guard, Matt Ginty, blew up for 16 of his game-high 24 points and they led 32-21 at halftime.

In the 3rd, the teams dueled close as Billy Glass' 6 kept Ajo from falling too far behind. Still it was 47-32 as the 4th opened. The Raiders' defense clamped down in the 4th, limiting Mesa to only 4 baskets, but got into deep foul trouble as Mesa made 13 points on free throws. Mesa was 16 of 22 from the line.

Nez led Ajo with a career-high 19 including four 3s. Glass had 14, and Felix Corona added 10, having gone 6 for 6 from the line. It was Ajo's best offensive performance of the year.

Gila Bend 50, Ajo 34

The Raiders' improvement this season can be measured by the difference between these teams' meetings. The season opened with the Monsters hammering the Raiders 70-16. Tuesday's game was bitterly fought as the 1st quarter ended with Gila Bend leading 10-8. In the 2nd, Ajo's offense struggled and the Monsters' Erick Ecker led the charge with 6 of his game-high 22 as they surged to a 23-12 halftime lead. The Raider's only scoring came on a David Sanford bucket, and Corona converted 2 of 4 technicals.

In the 3rd, even with intense play, Ajo couldn't shut down Ecker and only put up 6 points, falling behind 39-19. In the 4th, Glass, who had been shut out in the first half, came alive with 7 points and Corona matched his output as the Raiders closed on Gila Bend. Time ran out before Ajo could complete the comeback. Corona led the scoring with 11, Glass had 9, and Nez 6.

Tohono O'odham 47, Ajo 31

Tohono O'odham had a fine season, just failing to make the division tournament. Friday was Senior Night and Billy Glass played his last game as a Raider. In the first half he was red-hot with 11 points. Ajo played good defense as TO had a tight 22-18 lead.

In the 3rd, the Warrior defense collapsed on Glass cutting his scoring and the Raider defense kept getting beat on breakaway baskets. The quarter closed with TO's Troy Chilton hitting a 3 pointer from the half-court line at the buzzer. The 4th opened with TO leading 36-25 and Ajo seemed to be out of gas. TO got 5 from its second leading scorer and Darren Rendon's 4 were most of the Raiders' points.

Glass finished his career with a 13-point game. Corona had 8, and Rendon and Manny George each had 4.

Baylee Harper in her last game as a Raider shot for two against Tohono O'odham. Robert Sorrels photo

Lady Raiders went out quietly

By Robert Sorrels

Ajo concluded its season last week with an excellent game against Mesa Prep on Monday, a dismal showing at home against Gila Bend on Tuesday, and Friday ended with a loss on Senior Night against Tohono O'odham.

Mesa Prep 38, Ajo 25

"This was the best game of our season," enthused Coach Brad Harvey. "We only had seven players, but the girls really hustled. Lindsey Leon shot the lights out and Baylee Harper really put the clamp on Mesa's high-scoring forward."

Mesa's Jessica Caballero's 10 points in the 1st and 8 in the 2nd accounted for most of their 24-12 halftime lead. Leon and Jasmine Macias kept the Raiders in the game with 12 points between them. In the 3rd, Ajo played its best defense of the season as Harper shut down Caballero and Leon put up 7. The Ladies closed to within 4, but a long 3 failed and Ajo ran out of steam as Mesa slipped away in the 4th. Leon had 15 - her season high - while Noriega and Macias each had 4.

Gila Bend 40, Ajo 7

Following the excellent showing the night before, Raider hopes were high. It wasn't to be. Ajo sleepwalked scoreless through the 1st and only a Leon bucket late in the 2nd kept them from being skunked. The Monsters in contrast came out fired-up, played hard, and took a 26-2 lead at the half.

In the 2nd half, Gila Bend cooled off, but the Raiders never came to life. Noriega had 3, Leon 2, and Catlin Manuel 2.

Reasons can be offered for the collapse. Spark plug guard Charlee Harper was out with injury and her sister Baylee took a hard blow to the head that left her seeing double. Mariah Gilmartin, after missing 3 games, was rusty. In the end though, much of the team played without fire. Ball-handling and play-making were dismal. After it was over, Harvey rolled his eyes and lifted his hands, concluding, "What can I say?"

Tohono O'odham 49, Ajo 12

Senior night and the season's final game brought neighboring Tohono O'odham's excellent squad to town. Baylee Harper, who played two years, and Lindsey Leon, who played all four, were honored.

The Ladies were competitive in the 1st half, trailing 19-9 at the break as TO got a long, lucky 3-pointer at the buzzer. Macias, Gilmartin, and Noriega all scored for Ajo. The 3rd was a disaster as Ajo went scoreless and the Eagles poured in 18 points. The 4th was much the same as TO won going away.

Ajo did better than they had against Gila Bend, but play was still sloppy. Some players were clearly just going through the motions. Gilmartin led with 6 and Noriega had 4.

RAIDER OF THE WEEK

By Robert Sorrels

Shanoa Noriega was named Raider of the Week for excellent play in the last three weeks of the season. Her coach, Brad Harvey, said, "She is probably the most improved player on the team. She gets better every week and has a great work ethic."

Shanoa, a junior, played for the first time this year. "Early on I didn't have a lot of confidence. Against Antelope my first shot went in and I knew I could do it." Shanoa was among the high scorers in Ajo's remaining games.

Shanoa competes in shot put and discus. "I'm going to State this year," she said with confidence. "Last year in discus I added 30'. I'll do better."

"Sports are a way of expressing myself." Shanoa likes meeting people and said, "It keeps me out of trouble. It's not like I'm bad, but this keeps me busy." Shanoa is the fourth ROW to mention this.

Shanoa, as a member of the National Honor Society, participates in community service. Her favorite subjects are history and English. "History is really interesting and in English I'm never wrong provided that I express things well." A conversation involving Socrates and rhetoric followed.

Shanoa is a fan of LeBron James, following him on Twitter. She likes the NBA and loves great play. She's committed to getting better next year by working this summer. "I'm getting in the weight room and someone told me to shoot a hundred free throws a day." The idea of dribbling while running was also discussed.

Getting ready for a game, Shanoa listens to music. "Good music: anything from classical to hip-hop." She also thinks about mistakes and ways to correct them.

Her parents are Francisco & Karla Noriega.

Desert tortoise The desert tortoise has a gray to orange-brown, high, domed shell. The tortoise may reach eight to 15 inches in length and four to six inches in height. It may weigh eight to 15 pounds as an adult. The Sonoran desert tortoise occurs primarily in desert scrub habitat where the herbivores can find a variety of fresh, residual, and dried annuals, perennials, and plant litter to eat. Inactive from mid-October to late February, they winter in constructed burrows or rocky cavities or crevices. The Sonoran desert tortoise population is said to be declining due to habitat loss resulting from urban development and improper livestock grazing, release of captive tortoises that spread disease and affect population genetics, increased predation by coyotes and ravens that are benefiting from urban infiltration of wild areas, and increased invasive plant-driven fires. The Endangered Species Act makes it illegal to kill, harm or otherwise "take" a listed species, or to possess, import, export or engage in interstate or international commerce of a listed species without authorization in the form of a permit from the US Fish & Wildlife Service. The act requires all federal agencies to minimize the impact of their activities on the listed species and directs the USFWS to work with federal agencies and others to develop and carry out recovery efforts for those species. Listing also focuses attention on the needs of the species, encouraging conservation efforts by other agencies, conservation groups, and other organizations and individuals. Those interested in listing the Sonoran desert tortoise as threatened or endangered have listed what they see as threats to the species. Threats listed are destruction, modification, or curtailment of habitat or range including improper livestock grazing, urban development, and international border enforcement activities; overutilization including human disturbance, collection, and release of captive tortoises; disease or predation including upper respiratory tract disease, shell disease, and artificially inflated predator populations; inadequacy of existing management policies; and other factors including off-road vehicle use, drought, invasive species-driven fire cycles, and climate change.
