

"Colorful folklorico dancers, good food, games, music and the company of friends" is how an Ajo man described the Jamaica celebration held at the Ajo Immaculate Conception Church last Saturday, November 9. It was held as part of the Plaza's Second Saturday event, and is also a revival of an annual event Ajo's Catholic Church celebrated in years' past. Photo by Lito Castillo

Education, law, and health care were all topics at WPCCC

Topics for discussion at last Thursday's meeting of the Western Pima County Community Council included Pima Community College, county zoning and planning, local deputy activities, public school news, and a health center update.

Dr. Louis Albert, president of the West campus of Pima Community College the past 11 years, talked about recent events and statistics about the college. Albert said PCC has experienced a "rough time" the last couple of years in being placed on probation by their accrediting association, which, he said, criticized the school not for curriculum or staffing issues but rather for governance and administration issues. He said changes at the school over the last year and a half have been positive – including a large turnover in the administrative staff – and 300 faculty, staff, and community members are currently working to create a self-study report to be completed this coming summer. Albert said school re-accreditation would occur shortly thereafter, and the 2015 school year would likely see the largest enrollment increase in PCC history.

The average student at PCC is 27 years old and 55% are women, according to Albert. About 66% of those enrolled are part-time students. Many diverse cultures are represented, including China, noted Albert. Many online self-pace courses are available, and PCC is working to bring more college courses to high school students in a dual-enrollment program where credits count toward high school and college.

Deb Miller of Pima County Supervisor Sharon Bronson's office gave an update on county issues. She said the Ajo landfill will accept Christmas trees for disposal free of charge.

County zoning, which Miller said is more accurately described as building and property code enforcement, includes issues such as illegal vehicles, structure hazards, and abandoned trailers and may be reported to Bronson's office at 520-724-8051 or online at dsd.pima.gov/CodeEnforce/disclaimer.asp or by mail to Pima County Code Enforcement, 201 N. Stone Avenue, Second Floor, Tucson, 85701. Walk-ins are also accepted. Anonymous complaints may be made via phone to Bronson's office.

The county's 10-year comprehensive plan known as Pima Prospers is based on land, environmental, and economic issues, noted Miller. She said input from residents can help planners make better decisions for communities and may be made at pimaprospers.com online.

Sgt. Kori Tevere of the Pima County Sheriff's Department Ajo District fielded questions from the audience. She said the logistics are being worked out to possibly continue the Sheriff's Log in the Ajo Copper News. Deputies, including three new ones, continue to patrol neighborhoods. She said the reason some people report seeing multiple patrol vehicles by Circle K is because shifts are 10 hours long and a person can only drive so much. Responding to a question about a break-in at a neighborhood residence during Fourth of July fireworks, Tevere said there are generally only two deputies patrolling at any one time and it is not possible to keep an eye on everything in town. She asked that people call the Ajo District office at 387-8539 immediately with suspicious-activity reports and not wait until a suspect has left the area. Three new deputies and possibly the new swing-shift patrol sergeant will attempt to make next month's WPCCC meeting. Discussing the 12 people arrested in the September drug sweep, Tevere said 1 took a plea, 2 have warrant problems due to no physical address, and the other 9 have been sent a summons to make an initial appearance in court. She added that drug-test results are back from the lab.

Tevere said local Sheriff's Auxiliary Volunteers help the deputies "tremendously" and free them up for other duties. Responding to a question about deputy retention, she said there is no incentive pay to work in Ajo but she knows of one local deputy who went to work for Buckeye and before long sent a letter requesting to return to duty in Ajo. She said Ajo District has seen much improvement over the years and everyone gets along now so deputies don't want to leave as much. Tevere said she would talk to her supervisors about introducing new deputies to business owners and others around town as a means to build community.

Ajo Unified School District superintendent Dr. Robert Dooley's presentation will be the topic of a separate article.

Fran Driver, executive director of Desert Senita Community Health Center, mentioned that the health center's accrediting agency is Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care. She announced an open house for health center offices for Healthy Steps and for Affordable Care Act applications for November 20 (see related articles elsewhere in this issue). Driver encouraged everyone to attend Dr. Carol Johnson's retirement party, which took place last Friday. Discussing open scheduling at the health center, Driver said a limited number of time slots will be set aside each day for health care issues. Appointments with a care provider are still needed for procedures such as PAPs or lesion removals, and multiple medication refills. Driver added that she is looking for a fulltime physician to replace departing staff.

WPCCC chair Carol Yokum noted that elections for even-numbered WPCCC districts would take place at next month's meeting. Councilor Tina West said the chair for the Hia C-ed O'odham District has been invited to give a presentation at next month's meeting and encouraged everyone to spread the word. The next WPCCC meeting is scheduled for December 5.

The trip was arranged by Grijalva's assistant, Jessie Baxter, with the congressman asking to visit the school, the health center, and ISDA. Baxter characterized Grijalva's visit as "federal" rather than "political", meaning that its purpose was to determine how he could help local agencies make the best use of federal programs and funding opportunities.

During his Ajo visit, Grijalva was given a tour of the Plaza, visiting the Chamber of Commerce office, Repeat Performance, the Plaza Gallery/Art Stop, and the Oasis Café, where he had a quick lunch with a number of community members, noted Tracy Taft of ISDA.

The congressman spent an hour at the start of his visit with staff and students at the Ajo Unified School District, and later spent another hour in meetings at the Desert Senita Community Health Center.

Taft said Grijalva plans to return for another visit and mentioned wanting to visit the library.

ISDA Learning Center launches new GED program

An old era of GED has ended and a new one is beginning.

Morgana Wallace Cooper was instrumental in developing the International Sonoran Desert Alliance's Las Artes GED program from 2008 until July 2012. She incorporated art, job-preparedness and life skills into the program. "Thanks to her passion, vision and hard work, dozens of local residents earned their GED," said Tomás Kalmar.

In September 2012, Bridget and Tomás Kalmar became co-directors of the program. Bridget incorporated an optional work-study component for those who want to earn a stipend and learn job skills.

Last month marked the end of an era because it was the last time the old GED test was offered in Ajo. Ten people took the test — in good spirits — and six of them passed, some with very high scores.

In January 2014 a new and substantially redesigned GED that tests depth of knowledge will be launched nationwide.

It's the dawn of a new era. "To prepare students for the new test, we have substantially redesigned ISDA's afternoon and evening GED programs," says Tomás Kalmar. "We are excited about our new program," says Bridget Kalmar "because it will give students the opportunity to explore answers to questions that really interest them in areas such as psychology, astronomy, politics, and literature."

The new program will begin Wednesday, November 13. Because several students graduated from the old program, there is room for more students.

Anyone interested in applying for the new program should contact Liz Yon at Ajo Works at 387-6823.

Ajo Rotary treasurer Kelly Moore, president Daisy Farmer, and secretary Lisa Rossi are the current officers with the international service organization. The local club was formed in 1945.

Ajo Rotary has long history here

Rotary began in Ajo on February 12, 1945, about 40 years after Rotary International was founded in Chicago by Paul Harris.

Currently there are 10 active members, with Daisy Farmer serving as president, Lisa Rossi as secretary, and Kelly Moore as treasurer.

The mission statement of the club is "Service Above Self". Local programs include high school scholarships with an annual scholarship banquet, back-packs and school supplies for fourth-grade students each year, and decorations for the annual Christmas tree along with reading books for children and the traditional bag of treats on Christmas Eve.

The international club focus is on eradicating polio around the world. Other international programs include promoting peace, preventing disease, providing clean water, enhancing health, improving education, and helping communities develop.

Farmer explained that polio has been reduced by 99% in the world since 1979, and only remains in three countries. She said Rotarians have helped immunize more than 2 billion children in 122 countries. Farmer added that Microsoft founder Bill Gates has donated $355 million to Rotary International over the years.

The local club raises funds through barbecues, community bake sales, auctions, and roping arena events. Members meet on Thursdays.

"Change life, engage Rotary" is our motto," said Farmer. "A lot of our programs are geared toward children and it is rewarding to work for our community. I think all of us enjoy it because we do help local children in so many ways as well as donating to the international polio effort."

To learn more about Ajo Rotary, contact Farmer at 387-5631.

Healthy Steps specialist was trained in NBO in Boston

Healthy Steps specialist Cecilia Fernandez traveled to the Brazelton Institute in Boston in September to be trained on a child-development observation tool called Newborn Behavioral Observation. NBO was developed by a team of pediatricians and child-development specialists to observe the newborn as an individual. The goal of NBO is to help the family learn about their new baby and discover who he or she is, based on several neurobehavioral items.

Items include how babies respond to changes in their environment, how they use their hearing and vision, how they move, and how they communicate their needs. NBO will be offered as one of the services of the Healthy Steps Program. It is available to all families with children ages birth to 3 months.

"It is very interesting to see how smart and advanced these infants are when they are born," said Fernandez. "I love seeing parents discover how much their baby has to teach them about themselves at such a young age!"

For more information or to schedule an NBO appointment with Fernandez, call 387-3352.

Jesus Mariscal is the "Junior Rotarian" for November. He was a bit surprised at the honor, wisecracking, "I thought I had a date with Dr. Dooley." Mariscal plays three sports and is in the National Honor Society. Math and art are his favorite subjects.

Asked for the best thing about AHS, Mariscal paused, "The teachers. They take the time and they care." He particularly appreciates Ms. Judith Bullock. In contrast, when asked what would improve the school, he replied immediately: "More funding for art and music. They're important. We also need chemistry and physics."

Watching the world around him, Mariscal doesn't focus on problems though he quickly noted America's strengths. "Our pride, our patriotism and food stamps. We take care of people." Mariscal has been inspired by his sister Anitza, "who did all this before me," and Mr. Brad Harvey "who knows so many things and taught me golf."

Jesus has been accepted at the UA and plans to spend the first two years studying a bit of everything. Graphics and animation are interesting and he jokingly noted that he'd like to be a stand-up comedian as he launched into a riff on "What I really want to be when I grow up is a pro-wrestler with a mask and a cape!" On an earnest level, his philosophy on life is "Yes!" He also urged his fellow students to "Do your best in school. It really is important."

Jesus & Gloria Mariscal are his parents.

In 2012 she was elected to the Senate and currently serves on the Appropriations Committee, Natural Resources and Rural Affairs Committee, Public Safety Committee, Joint Legislative Budget Committee, Joint Committee on Capital Review and the Arizona State Library Board.

Senator Pancrazi decided to serve because of her concern for the state's quality of education. She advocates for a safe and secure border, managed growth and adequate infrastructure throughout the state.

Senator Pancrazi's courage and integrity are above reproach and the communities she represents are proud to recognize her as one of their leaders.

Now located in the former Depot in the Plaza, the Ajo CofC is training new docents and adding merchandise in anticipation of a busy winter season. Allen pointed out that, although the front room is stocked with the traditional maps and brochures from around the state, the back room is filled with novelties and gifts, many customized with an Ajo logo. Popular souvenirs are t-shirts featuring the winning artwork from the annual Ajo design contest, Southwest-themed mugs, copper accessories, Ajo Christmas ornaments and cards, refrigerator magnets, cactus candles, syrups and jellies, and Ajo hats and walking sticks. Allen added that many local artists are represented in the shop, and she encourages everyone to stop by and visit before the holidays. The CofC is open Mondays through Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ajo Community Golf Course GOLF

By Greg Burton

Frank Milene and Carol Peek remain sizzling hot as they took this week's "Couples" game by two strokes, carding a 26.5. Harley and Elaine Murray were in second place with a 28.5, and Tony and Linda McGarry were third with a 29.4. If you and a partner play golf you should try the Couples game. It's a lot of fun and very inexpensive to play.

The men's Skins game had five players this week. Tony McGarry won two skins with George Steckel, Frank Milene and Dustin each pulling out one skin.

The Friday evening Pro-Am was won by captain Bill Doremus and his team of Harley Murray, Joe Gonzales, and Paula Dormeus. Second place went to captain George Steckel and his team of Elaine Murray, Patty Taylor, Juan Sanchez, and Joe Trueba.

Tuesday morning, the Men's Club teed it up for their regular stroke play contest. Milene, who is playing great golf right now, pulled out the win by shooting a net 64. Maurice Landry, one of the better putters in the men's group, got second with a 67, and Greg Burton came in third this week with a 68. There were three chip-ins for cash. Milene had two on holes 7 and 13 and Steckel got one on #8.

Friends of the Plaza supporters John & Hope Noyes volunteered some time last weekend to reseed bare spots in the Plaza turf, with John working a broadcaster while Hope recorded notes. The couple emphasized that they merely help supplement the everyday work of the paid maintenance staff in the Plaza.

Legendary as local gopher-and-mole trappers, the couple said they recently changed techniques because spring-loaded trapping was "not very appealing." Working with advice from a local old-timer, the duo now feeds chewing gum down gopher holes. The pesky critters reportedly cannot digest the gum and become constipated, and the discomfort encourages them to move on. John said he started off by poking the gum into holes with a finger but switched to a spoon after pulling his finger out of one hole with a tarantula hawk wasp attached to the end.

CBP, PCSD in on Amber Alert case

US Customs & Border Protection officers working at the Lukeville Port of Entry were recently contacted by Mexican immigration officials who had taken into custody a legal permanent resident from California at a checkpoint south of Sonoyta in Sonora, Mexico.

Twenty-two-year-old Turkish national Mesut Guler reportedly fled into Mexico with his son, after allegedly threatening to kill the child and himself, prompting an Amber Alert to be issued. Lukeville POE officials confirmed an active arrest warrant and worked with local Pima County Sheriff's Department deputies and Child Protective Services to hand custody of the father and child over to PCSD last Wednesday night.

In a press release, a Tucson field operations director praised the cooperation between CBP and Mexican authorities, along with other law-enforcement partners, to ensure the child's safety.

Attorneys for the Plaintiff
Notice to the Defendant: A lawsuit has been filed against you in justice court!
You have rights and responsibilities in this lawsuit.
Read this notice carefully.

1. In a justice court lawsuit, individuals have a right to represent themselves or they may hire an attorney to represent them. A family member or a friend may not represent someone in justice court unless the family member or friend is an attorney. A corporation has a right to be represented by an officer of the corporation, and a limited liability company ("LLC") may be represented by a managing member. A corporation or an LLC may also be represented by an attorney. If you represent yourself, you have the responsibility to properly complete your court papers and to file them when they are due. The clerks and staff at the court are not allowed to give you legal advice. If you would like legal advice, you may ask the court for the name and phone number of a local lawyer referral service, the local bar association, or a legal aid organization.
2. You have a responsibility to follow the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure ("JCRCP") that apply in your lawsuit. The rules are available in many public libraries, at the courthouse, and online at the Court Rules page of the Arizona Judicial Branch website, at http://www.azcourts.gov/, under the "AZ Supreme Court" tab.
3. A "plaintiff" is someone who files a lawsuit against a "defendant." You must file an answer or other response to the plaintiff's complaint in writing and within twenty (20) days from the date you were served with the summons and complaint (or within (30) days if you were served out-of-state.) If you do not file an answer within this time, the plaintiff may ask the court to enter a "default" and a "default judgment" against you. Your answer must state your defenses to the lawsuit. Answer forms are available at the courthouse, and on the Self-Service Center of Arizona Judicial Branch website at http://www.azcourts.gov/ under the "Public Services" tab. You may prepare your answer electronically at http://www.azturbcourt.gov/; this requires payment of an additional fee. You may also prepare your answer on a plain sheet of paper, but your answer must include the case number and the names of the parties. You must provide to the plaintiff a copy of any document that you file with the court, including your answer.
4. You may bring a claim against the plaintiff if you have one. When you file your answer or written response with the court, you may also file your "counterclaim" against the plaintiff.
5. You must pay a filing fee to the court when you file your answer. If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you may apply to the court for a fee waiver or deferral, but you must still file your answer on time.

Attorneys for the Plaintiff
Notice to the Defendant: A lawsuit has been filed against you in justice court!
You have rights and responsibilities in this lawsuit.
Read this notice carefully.

1. In a justice court lawsuit, individuals have a right to represent themselves or they may hire an attorney to represent them. A family member or a friend may not represent someone in justice court unless the family member or friend is an attorney. A corporation has a right to be represented by an officer of the corporation, and a limited liability company ("LLC") may be represented by a managing member. A corporation or an LLC may also be represented by an attorney. If you represent yourself, you have the responsibility to properly complete your court papers and to file them when they are due. The clerks and staff at the court are not allowed to give you legal advice. If you would like legal advice, you may ask the court for the name and phone number of a local lawyer referral service, the local bar association, or a legal aid organization.
2. You have a responsibility to follow the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure ("JCRCP") that apply in your lawsuit. The rules are available in many public libraries, at the courthouse, and online at the Court Rules page of the Arizona Judicial Branch website, at http://www.azcourts.gov/, under the "AZ Supreme Court" tab.
3. A "plaintiff" is someone who files a lawsuit against a "defendant." You must file an answer or other response to the plaintiff's complaint in writing and within twenty (20) days from the date you were served with the summons and complaint (or within (30) days if you were served out-of-state.) If you do not file an answer within this time, the plaintiff may ask the court to enter a "default" and a "default judgment" against you. Your answer must state your defenses to the lawsuit. Answer forms are available at the courthouse, and on the Self-Service Center of Arizona Judicial Branch website at http://www.azcourts.gov/ under the "Public Services" tab. You may prepare your answer electronically at http://www.azturbcourt.gov/; this requires payment of an additional fee. You may also prepare your answer on a plain sheet of paper, but your answer must include the case number and the names of the parties. You must provide to the plaintiff a copy of any document that you file with the court, including your answer.
4. You may bring a claim against the plaintiff if you have one. When you file your answer or written response with the court, you may also file your "counterclaim" against the plaintiff.
5. You must pay a filing fee to the court when you file your answer. If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you may apply to the court for a fee waiver or deferral, but you must still file your answer on time.
6. You may contact the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and try to reach an agreement to settle the lawsuit. However, until an agreement is reached you must file your answer and participate in the lawsuit. During the lawsuit, the court may require the parties to discuss settlement.
7. Within forty (40) days after your answer has been filed, you and the plaintiff are required to provide a disclosure statement to each other. 1. In a justice court lawsuit, individuals have a right to represent themselves or they may hire an attorney to represent them. A family member or a friend may not represent someone in justice court unless the family member or friend is an attorney. A corporation has a right to be represented by an officer of the corporation, and a limited liability company ("LLC") may be represented by a managing member. A corporation or an LLC may also be represented by an attorney. If you represent yourself, you may have the responsibility to properly complete your court papers and to file them when they are due. The clerks and staff at the court are not allowed to give you legal advice. If you would like legal advice, you may ask the court for the name and phone number of a local lawyer referral service, the local bar association, or a legal aid organization.
2. You have a responsibility to follow the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure ("JCRCP") that apply in your lawsuit. The rules are available in many public libraries, at the courthouse, and online at the Court Rules page of the Arizona Judicial Branch website, at <http://www.azcourts.gov/>, under the "AZ Supreme Court" tab.
3. A "plaintiff" is someone who files a lawsuit against a "defendant." You must file an answer or other response to the plaintiff's complaint in writing and within twenty (20) days from the date you were served with the summons and complaint (or within (30) days if you were served out-of-state.) If you do not file an answer within this time, the plaintiff may ask the court to enter a "default" and a "default judgment" against you. Your answer must state your defenses to the lawsuit. Answer forms are available at the courthouse, and on the Self-Service Center of Arizona Judicial Branch website at <http://www.azcourts.gov/> under the "Public Services" tab. You may prepare your answer electronically at <http://www.aztubocourt.gov/>; this requires payment of an additional fee. You may also prepare your answer on a plain sheet of paper, but your answer must include the court location, the case number and the names of the parties. You must provide to the plaintiff a copy of any document that you file with the court, including your answer.
4. You may bring a claim against the plaintiff if you have one. When you file your answer or written response with the court, you may also file your "counterclaim" against the plaintiff.
5. You must pay a filing fee to the court when you file your answer. If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you may apply to the court for a fee waiver or deferral, but you must still file your answer on time.
6. You may contact the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and try to reach an agreement to settle the lawsuit. However, until an agreement is reached you must file your answer and participate in the lawsuit. During the lawsuit, the court may require the parties to discuss settlement.
7. Within forty (40) days after your answer has been filed, you and the plaintiff are required to provide a disclosure statement to each other. This disclosure statement provided information about witnesses and exhibits that will be used in the lawsuit. A party may also learn more about the other side's case through discovery. Read the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure for more information about disclosure statements and discovery.
8. The court will notify you of all hearing dates and trial dates. You must appear at the time and place specified in each notice. If you fail to appear at a trial or a hearing, the court may enter a judgment against you. To assure that you receive these notices, you must keep the court informed, in writing, of your current address and telephone number until the lawsuit is over.

PRONOUNCEMENT OF LIFE & NON-CORPORATE STATUS
MY STATUS AND STANDING
I AM randall kevin santeler aka randall kevin santeler, Living Man, free inhabitant standing on the land, Immortal Spirit, One with the Divine, of sound mind, majority in age, competent to speak, able to handle My own affairs, do hereby make the following pronouncement and claim of life as evidenced by My Live Borne Record, witnessed by My parents on [Dec 10, 1952], recorded in the family Bible.
BIRTH CERTIFICATE (BC) FRAUD
The Birth Certificate for Randall Kevin Santeler was conceived in fraud due to lack of full disclosure that a stock certificate and a bond was issued from it and sold by the U.S. Treasury, bought by the Federal Reserve, held in trust at the DTC and traded on the circle 750 stock exchange as a security for my benefit which I hereby CLAIM as beneficiary. All BC derivative adhesion contracts, E.g. Social Security, Driver License are unconscionable, lacking full disclosure and hereby made null and void ab initio, rescinding my signatures.
CESTUI QUE VIE TRUST (CQV)
I rebut all false presumptions upon which multiple CQV trusts were formed, administered against Me secretly in fraud without My consent: I am NOT dead, lost at sea, abandoned, incompetent, bankrupt, a minor, infant, filial, ward of the state or court, imbecile of mind or a criminal lunatic. I am NOT the trustee, surety, fiduciary, executor, res, subject-matter, property, body corporate, trust corpus for any secret trust conceived in fraud, predicated on a false claim and void of any property.
NOT A CORPORATION OR THING
I am NOT anyone's property, chattel, cattle, stock, joint-stock, an animal, an object, a notion, a thing, a number, a derivative; not a defendant, or person of the defendant known as [RANDALL KEVIN SANTELER] -- U.S. vessel; a debtor; a franchise, an individual, a state, a foreign state or instrumentality thereof; a corporation; a person, a U.S. person; a public servant, a government employee, employer, resident, citizen, driver, taxpayer; decedent. I am NOT liable for the debt of the U.S. Vessel, an entity I did not create. The U.S. is the principal holder of obligation for all U.S. Vessels.
NOT A U.S. CITIZEN OR SUBJECT
Unbeknownst to most Americans, the U.S. is a federal corporation and registering to vote as a U.S. citizen under the 14th Amendment, Section 2 invokes an operation of law that is unconscionable, namely committing an act of criminal treason, classifying Me as an enemy of the State. I have never agreed to such or agreed to be a subject citizen to any corporation or de facto government. I, Living Man am NOT a D.C. aka U.S. citizen, but rather acting agent for the U.S. citizen-vessel. I am NOT belligerent, an enemy of the U.S. or state, not a sovereign citizen or anti-government. To label me as such is slander and defamation and injures me. I live in peace & harmony with all men and I respect the Rule of Law.
CLAIM TO MY BIRTHRIGHT
I CLAIM my own birthright "as Executor and Guardian and Beneficiary" over My own name, mind, body and soul. I hold superior title to My own name terry joseph wolfe in trust given by my parents as Trust No. 283153-624272-053033.

MY STATUS AND STANDING
I AM terry joseph wolfe aka terry joseph wolfe, Living Man, free inhabitant standing on the land, Immortal Spirit, One with the Divine, of sound mind, majority in age, competent to speak, able to handle My own affairs, do hereby make the following pronouncement and claim of life as evidenced by My Live Borne Record, witnessed by My parents on [Oct 23, 1954], recorded in the family Bible.
BIRTH CERTIFICATE (BC) FRAUD
The Birth Certificate for Terry Joseph Wolfe was conceived in fraud due to lack of full disclosure that a stock certificate and a bond was issued from it and sold by the U.S. Treasury, bought by the Federal Reserve, held in trust at the DTC and traded on the circle 750 stock exchange as a security for my benefit which I hereby CLAIM as beneficiary. All BC derivative adhesion contracts, E.g. Social Security, Driver License are unconscionable, lacking full disclosure and hereby made null and void ab initio, rescinding my signatures.
CESTUI QUE VIE TRUST (CQV)
I rebut all false presumptions upon which multiple CQV trusts were formed, administered against Me secretly in fraud without My consent: I am NOT dead, lost at sea, abandoned, incompetent, bankrupt, a minor, infant, filial, ward of the state or court, imbecile of mind or a criminal lunatic. I am NOT the trustee, surety, fiduciary, executor, res, subject-matter, property, body corporate, trust corpus for any secret trust conceived in fraud, predicated on a false claim and void of any property.
NOT A CORPORATION OR THING
I am NOT anyone's property, chattel, cattle, stock, joint-stock, an animal, an object, a notion, a thing, a number, a derivative; NOT a defendant, or person of the defendant known as [TERRY JOSEPH WOLFE] -- U.S. vessel; a debtor; a franchise, an individual, a state, a foreign state or instrumentality thereof; a corporation; a person, a U.S. person; a public servant, a government employee, employer, resident, citizen, driver, taxpayer; decedent. I am NOT liable for the debt of the U.S. Vessel, an entity I did not create. NOT A U.S. CITIZEN-SUBJECT
Unbeknownst to most Americans, the U.S. is a federal corporation and registering to vote as a U.S. citizen under the 14th Amendment, Section 2 invokes an operation of law that is unconscionable, namely committing an act of criminal treason, classifying Me as an enemy of the State.
