K-9 teams, parks, school, health center, CofC were all topics at WPCCC

The January meeting of the Western Pima County Community Council was held last Thursday in the Ajo Community Center with a large crowd on hand.

The featured presentation was a K-9 demonstration by the Pima County Sheriff's Department. Other presentations were given by US Border Patrol, Ajo Unified School District, Pima County Natural Resources Parks and Recreation, Ajo District Chamber of Commerce, and the Ajo Center for Sustainable Agriculture.

WPCCC chair Lil Jones read a note from county representative Deb Miller, who was unable to attend, regarding an investigation by Pima County Department of Environmental Quality into a noise and odor complaint for the diesel generator at the 55 Sahuaro government housing complex. Several deficiencies were recorded during the inspection – primarily record-keeping violations and a lack of visible emissions checks – and Department of Homeland Security has been issued an Opportunity to Correct.

Sgt. Kori Tevere of PCSD Ajo District gave a brief update. A new deputy will be coming to Ajo in "a month or so" who is a lateral transfer from Pinal County Sheriff's Department. Another deputy, who will graduate from the law enforcement academy in February, will be assigned to Ajo in mid-May upon completion of his field training.

Large local businesses and organizations are being asked to send or bring floor plan blueprints of their facilities to the Ajo District office on Well Road. Tevere said the floor plans are needed to provide entry and exit information for deputies, firefighters, and ambulance personnel during emergencies.

The K-9 demonstration will be the topic of a full-length article in an upcoming issue.

Roman Rubio, USBP agent and community liaison, talked about a multi-agency citizens academy set to begin this Thursday at the Border Patrol's Ajo Station. He said there is still time to register for the course, which will be held on six consecutive Thursdays. Attendees must be 18 or older and willing to submit to a background check. For more information, contact Rubio at roman.g.rubio@cbp.dhs.gov or call 387-7002 extension 2706.

AUSD principal Lauren Carriere gave a report on school news. She said volunteers are always welcome at the school and anyone interested may call the school office at 387-7601 to get started. Carriere said local sheriff's department personnel are "so helpful" and all the school's partnerships are important.

Carriere talked about an increase in the student body this year, two new teachers, MAP testing, the new marquee, grant projects that six teachers are involved with, and field trips to Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument. Her talk will be the topic of a future article.

Jones read a report from Desert Senita Community Health Center. Two doctors and one nurse practitioner are now seeing patients at the health center. Outreach staff that helps at the Edible Ajo School Yard garden recently received approval to use produce from the garden in the school cafeteria.

Merrill Meadows of Pima County Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation gave a brief review of fitness classes offered. She said an additional class with nutrition and wellness components will be starting soon. Basketball season is past the midway mark with boys and girls teams playing well. The Walker Park playground surface has had three repair attempts. Much of the problem had to do with a failed head-impact test that uses a tall tripod and a dropped object. After the third repair, with construction fencing still in place, two people apparently climbed the fence and left footprints in the new surface before it could cure. Meadows said any information about possible culprits would be helpful.

CofC director Andrew Sisk said the mixer in December set a record for attendance and will be used as a model for the future. His report will be the topic of a future article.

Nina Sajovec of the Ajo CSA talked about changes with the farmers market and upcoming workshops open to the public. Her report is the topic of a separate article.

Jose Castillo announced that the Keep Kids on Track-sponsored mariachis will perform in Dicus Auditorium on January 30 at 1 p.m., followed by a barbacoa at the parish hall behind the Catholic Church to raise funds for a centennial celebration in November.

Replacement sought for constable after Gradillas retirement

Following the resignation of George Gradillas as constable on January 1, the Pima County Board of Supervisors is accepting letters of interest to fill the position.

The replacement must be 18 years of age or older at the time of the appointment; registered to vote in Justice Precinct 3; a resident of the precinct; and belong to the same political party as the person vacating the office, in this case a Democrat.

Letters of interest should be accompanied by a resume and a financial disclosure form. The form, and an instruction manual, can be obtained through the county's website at www.pima.gov using a link under Quick Links at the right side of the page, by e-mailing a request to the clerk of the board at COB_Mail@pima.gov, or by calling 520-724-8449.

According to the county's website, a constable is an elected peace officer of the county and their judicial precinct as well as the executive officer of their justice precinct. They serve civil and criminal papers of the Pima Justice Court, Pima County agencies/departments, and equivalent level papers from other counties.

The supervisors are expected to fill the vacancy at their February 2 meeting. At least one person has expressed an interest in filling the position.

For more information, see the ad on page 8.

Gradillas says he retired to spend more time with his family, especially his grandchildren in Tucson.

Farmers market is now weekly

The Authentically Ajo Farmers Market in the Plaza will be held every Saturday morning from now through the cool growing season, according to Nina Sajovec of the Ajo Center for Sustainable Agriculture, who gave a brief report at the January meeting of the Western Pima County Community Council.

The market will have expanded hours during this time, from 9 a.m. to noon. Sajovec noted that buying local at the market helps support more than 30 growers, food value-added producers, and crafts people while boosting the local economy in general.

The Ajo CSA is in the final stages of being able to accept food stamps at the market. Purchases of fresh foods and vegetables with food stamps will be matched $1 for every dollar spent in food stamps via the Double Up Bucks program. Activities for kids will be introduced at upcoming markets, noted Sajovec.

Referring to recent rains, Sajovec said there is still time to plant a winter garden, and there are plenty of opportunities to learn how. A seed saving workshop will be held at the public library on January 14 at 10:30 a.m., a pomegranate pruning workshop will occur at the Many Hands Urban Farm & Learning Center on January 20 at 10 a.m., and a drip irrigation workshop on January 27 at 11 a.m. will be at the Many Hands center. For Ajo's annual health fair on January 30, the CSA will have a presence with chickens from the Many Hands coop along with fun chicken factoids for all ages.

Tiki is an 11-month-old female Chihuahua mix puppy. The Pima Animal Care Center staff says she is very happy and spunky. For more information about adopting homeless pets call 387-7502. PACC is open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. and Wednesday evening from 4:30 until 6:30 p.m. It is located on Well Road with an entrance at the back of the sheriff's department building.

George Gray of the Ajo Community Market presented a check for $400 to Dutch Steinmetz, a trustee of the VFW. The donation will be used for upgrading the VFW post. Community support of the market made the donation possible. (Gray photo)

The Sheriff's Log will return next week with two weeks of information.

Obits still free in Ajo Copper News

As more and more community newspapers begin charging for obituaries that do more than list the name of the deceased, date of death, and service information, the Ajo Copper News continues to print them at no charge.

"We do have a style and format we follow," said editor Gabrielle David, "and occasionally we have to edit what families have written, but we regard obituaries as important community news. We have no plans to start charging for them."

The newspaper has forms people may fill out to make sure nothing important is forgotten. Request a form by stopping by the office at 10 Pajaro, mailing a letter to Ajo Copper News, P.O. Box 39, Ajo, AZ 85321; calling 520-387-7688; or sending an e-mail to cunews@cunews.info with Obituary in the subject line.

Letter to the editor Independence

Editor:

My name is Harold Raney. I was born and raised in Ajo (1-11-1931). I lived here all my life.

Two months ago, I was involved in a near accident in the Plaza next to the bank. I had gone around the park and was in the yield lane. A car was traveling on Highway 85 heading west. Wouldn't you know, it was a police car. We did not collide. There was no damage and no one was hurt. When you enter the yield lane, you can not see the cars coming on Highway 85 because of the building. Technically the police car had the right of way. He had the green light and I was in the yield lane.

I don't blame the officer for being mad — but instead of giving me a ticket, he turned me into the Motor Vehicle Division. I received a letter from them, they asked me to report to one of the divisions. I went to the Motor Vehicle Division in Casa Grande and presented the letter to them. They did not come right out and say it, but because of the officer's recommendation and my age, they revoked my driver's license.

To the officer: Do you realize what you have done to me? I had three years left until my license expired. That was enough time for me to get my house in order, and take care of things that needed to be done. I needed to be able to drive — you have taken away my independence. I hope you are satisfied.

Harold J. Raney

Letter to the editor Conflicts alleged by writer

Editor:

The Western Pima County Community Council ("WPCCC") Bylaws require that all meetings must be publically posted (Bylaws, Section 3, Paragraph 4) and that no motions may be heard or votes taken at an Executive Meeting (Bylaws Section 3, Paragraph 3" (see also "Open Meeting" laws and regulations).

WPCCC Bylaws address both "conflict of interest" and "the appearance of conflict of interest", specifically Bylaws, Voting, Section 5, second sentence; "Any Council member having or appearing to have a conflict of interest shall refrain from voting."

I will hope that the WPCCC [sic] Board members will keep this in mind when voting on any requests for support or on any other matter presented by the International Sonoran Desert Alliance ("ISDA").

Specifically, I will ask the following Board member [sic] to refrain from voting.

- District 5, Andrew Sisk, "Actual conflict" citing:

1. ISDA is a voting member of the Chamber of Commerce and votes on Sisk's continued employment.

- 2 Active business relations as the Chamber of Commerce is a tenant of ISDA, Sisk is the representative tenant, and would have frequent business dealings with ISDA through ISDA's "Ajo Plaza, LLC."

3. Active business relationship as Sisk is the owner/operator of the Oasis"; a tenant of ISDA through ISDA's "Ajo Plaza, LLC."

- District 6, Sherry Servanti, "Perception of conflict" citing;

1. Active business relations with ISDA as the President of the Chamber of Commerce Fry is a representative tenant of ISDA through ISDA's "Ajo Plaza, LLC."

2. ISDA is a voting member of the Chamber and holds a vote power over Fry's continued presence as President of the Chamber.

- District 8, Adrian Vega, "Actual Conflict";

1. Co-owner of real property with ISDA's Executive Director, Tracy Taft

2. Former employee of ISDA

- At Large, Tina West, "Perception of Conflict"

School board to elect officers, discuss budget

There will be three school board meetings this week: two on Tuesday and one on Wednesday. All three meetings will be held in room six on the school campus.

The Tuesday meetings will follow each other with the first starting at 5:30 p.m. At a special session, the board will nominate and then elect their president and board clerk. At the study session, they will discuss personnel and business items to be voted on at Wednesday's meeting as well as hear reports about the 2015 tax credit donations and speech therapy sessions.

On Wednesday, at 5:30 p.m., the board will meet in regular session. Agenda items include decisions about hiring teachers and other personnel. In the business portion they will be asked to make decisions on out-of-state travel, the Proposition 301 plan, and the board meeting calendar for 2016 as well as approve the first 2016 budget revision.

AZ Highways editor had crowd

Robert Stieve, editor in chief of Arizona Highways Magazine, gave a slide show presentation in the public library last Friday with the room filling quickly to its limit of 40 occupants.

Stieve displayed magazine covers to show how the publication has evolved from its inception in 1926 as a Department of Transportation newsletter to its current state with glossy photos and literary articles. Early editions highlighted bridges, roads, and heavy road-working equipment, and it took some time for the evolution to a travel and tourism magazine. The first color front cover came along in 1932, noted Stieve, and an increasing number of inside color photos followed over the years. Stieve has been editor of the magazine since April 2007.

The author lecture series in the library is sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Video series to be featured at adult Sunday School

Adult Sunday School classes at Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church will showcase the video The Truth Project in 12 one-hour segments over an equal number of Sundays beginning February 7. The series is produced by the Focus on the Family organization. Classes at Good Shepherd begin at 9:15 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

Pruning and planting offered at Loma Bonita

Loma Bonita Orchard and Garden will offer several work sessions during the next two weekends in cooperation with the Ajo Regional Food Partnership.

On Saturday & Sunday, January 16 & 17, from 1 to 5 p.m. each afternoon, Loma Bonita will be pruning fruit trees, grape vines, and blackberry bushes.

"Everyone is invited to help, and to learn," said Don & Gayle Weyers. "Wear gloves and bring good quality, sharp pruners. Many of the pruned branches can be planted, in the hope of growing a new bush or tree, and may be shared by the work session participants."

On Saturday & Sunday, January 23 & 24, again from 1 to 5 p.m., Loma Bonita will host fruit tree planting sessions. Trees to be planted include peaches, apricots, cherries, a kumquat, apriums, and more. "Bring a shovel and wear gloves," say the couple. "Mid-afternoon snacks are always welcome."

Gayle Weyers and George Havins will be the leaders.

Loma Bonita Orchard & Garden is located at 820 Esperanza, and at 721 Esperanza. "There will be enough work for everyone," they said. "Loma Bonita, a partner in the Ajo Regional Food Partnership, shares the goal of growing healthy local food for our greater community."

Dominique M. Pacheco and Joseph D. Granillo were united in marriage on December 31, 2015, in a noon ceremony in the Ajo Courthouse. They were led in their vows by the Hon. John T. Peck and attended by their son Marcus D. Granillo. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Joseph Pacheco. Their witnesses were Michelle A. Pacheco and Otilia Mendez. A group of family and friends attended the ceremony and an afternoon reception at the Pacheco home.

It seems to be a season for new beginnings, what with invitations to a wedding, a baby's birthday party, and two baby showers arriving one after another.

The wedding was for Dominique and Joseph, whose picture is on this page. The birthday party was for their son Marcus, who is now a rambunctious toddler, not really a baby any longer.

One baby shower, which I had to miss, was for the sister EmmaRose Antone is expecting with her parents, Carol & Gleason. But my favorite of the season was the one for Vaughan Vito Valenzano, whose birth is expected in late March — just because he is making my daughter Paula a grandmother and that means I'm means I'm a great-grandmother.

Actually, while the baby shower for my granddaughter Danielle was fun, it was the next day that was the highlight. We all got to go watch a 4-D sonogram and see the little boy's face. He's already sucking his fist, despite many instructions to "Move your hand, Vaughan!"

It is truly amazing what technology can do. It's also amazing what a little love can do, too.

Library has many programs on tap

Upcoming public library events include a button artwork program, seed saving, and bilingual storytime.

On Wednesday, January 13, at 3 p.m., participants will get to create pieces of art with buttons. Hot glue guns will be used, so young participants will need to bring a grown-up. This program is limited to 18 participants.

On Thursday, January 14, at 10 a.m., Brandon Merchant from Southwest Victory Gardens in Tucson, will present a 90-minute program about seed saving.

On Friday, January 15, at 10:30 a.m., there will be a bilingual storytime for parents who wish to introduce their children to reading and language in a fun way.

Ongoing programs include the learning lab held Monday through Thursday from 3 to 5 p.m., the O'odham language study group that meets Thursdays at noon, and bilingual storytime will be Fridays at 10:30 a.m.

Pickleball is coming to Ajo

Pickleball is the fastest growing sport in the US, according to the Pima County Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation staff.

"This sport is attracting interest with every age group. PCNRPR will have their net out at the Desert Senita Health Fair on January 30th to boost local awareness of the sport," they said while explaining that pickleball is a cross between tennis, badminton and ping-pong.

"You can also come to the Bud Walker Park between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday-Thursday starting January 11 to play on the court by the center. You can check out paddles and a ball, weather permitting of course. There is no cost for playing pickleball. Come in to the center and we will get you set up to play."

Raiders lost in final seconds

By Robert Sorrels

The Tohono O'odham Eagles got the last shot to win Friday when they played the Ajo High School Red Raiders.

Tohono O'odham 50, Ajo 49

In the 1st quarter, Ajo fans wondered if the Raiders had forgotten the break was over as TO sprinted to a 12-1 lead. Someone lit a fire under Ajo and they came storming back to trail 28-23 at half. Coming out the second half Ajo demonstrated real grit and determination fighting to a 40-38 3rd quarter lead.

It was an intense game as the score changed hands a dozen times. Play was physical, fast, daring. Devon Rendon racked up seven steals while Armando Herrera had four offensive rebounds and two assists. It came down to the last team with the ball when TO dropped a beautiful jumper to secure the win.

Josiah Nez led Ajo with 20+ points. Roberto Macias played a high energy game collecting multiple rebounds, while Juan Herrera continued learning to own his space on the floor becoming a presence at forward.

Jacob Lewis did everything in his power to carry the Raiders. Scoring, handing out assists, and playing monster at center, he almost got it done.

Head coach Brian Bissell was on ambulance duty so wasn't courtside. However he praised the leadership of his assistants Eddie Williams and E.T. Bissell. Both did a great job directing the team.

Brian Bissell noted he was "Very proud of this team. Even when totally out of it, they woke up and charged back. They showed they can go toe-to-toe with anyone."

Bissell continued, "We'll go back to the drawing board and figure out how to come out on fire. This is a great team and they keep learning."

Lady Raiders faded again

By Robert Sorrels

The Lady Raiders showed signs of life Friday against Tohono O'odham, but didn't put a complete game together.

Tohono O'odham 44, Ajo 16

Ajo stayed close in the 1st quarter trailing only 5-2. In the 2nd their defense began to fray and the Eagles took a 14-4 half-time lead. Ajo came out in the 3rd scoring a season high 12 points. Unfortunately their defense came apart as TO poured in 30. Both teams looked exhausted in the scoreless 4th.

Ajo is frustrating both to their coach and fans. As Ticha Mancilla noted, "They play well for a while then some players disappear. Once they lose momentum, they can't get it back."

Chello Abril continued her solid play with four points and three rebounds. Athina Alegria showed her steady improvement going two of three from the floor plus a couple of offensive rebounds. Off and on Sianna Garza had four points and seven rebounds. Still the team shot 33% from the floor and didn't draw a foul all game.

Coach Mancilla was frustrated. "We'll look good in practice, for a while in a game, and then ... Oh man, oh man."

KofC free throw contest is set for January 23

The Ajo Knights of Columbus free throw championship is set for Saturday, January 23, at 10 a.m. in Walker Park. The contest is open to all boys and girls ages 9 through 14. Age eligibility is determined by the age of the contestant as of January 1.

Ajo Community Golf Course
GOLF

The weather cooperated nicely on Saturday, January 2, for our Pro-Am golf tournament and steak fry, giving us a great turnout for our afternoon game and cookout around the big mesquite grill. First place went to the team captained by Reggie Scott with Paul Barnhart, Norma Steckel, Roy Johnson and Carol Peek. Second went to Dustin Mendez and his team of Bob Holden, Gerry Holm and Liz Boca.

Monday afternoon, the wind blew a little but that didn't stop 92-year-old Jack Tavenner from playing in the Men's Skins game and holding his own. Tony McGarry got two skins one on 12 and one on 13 while Bill Stoffel got two skins on #10 and #11. The other guys were just glad to get back to the comforts of the clubhouse.

Men's Club Tuesday morning January 5th turned out to be another nice day. In the A Flight, Greg Burton took first place with a net 68 followed by Frank Milene with a net 79. In the B Flight, Bud Turner took first with a net 72 and Gerry Holm took second with a net 76.

Bob Holden and crew are working on installing the new pump for the pond on 18 and even transplanted a nice palm tree just north of #3 green. Come play some golf and check it out.

We are already gearing up for our 38th Annual Old Time Fiddlers Contest and Dance scheduled for February 4-7. This is a big event for the town and we appreciate all the support we get from the businesses and our residents. Last year we had over 100 RVers camped on the driving range during this event. Be sure to make plans to come out and enjoy this uniquely Ajo event.

Saturday, January 16, at 10 a.m. we will hold an old style nine-hole scramble tournament. If you like to play scrambles this is a good one. It is lots of fun and anyone can play and win some money. (Proceeds will go to fertilizer fund).

Also don't forget an important board meeting Tuesday, January 16, at 6 p.m., in the Clubhouse. Call the course for info at 520-387-5011.

See you on the golf course.

The staff at Pima County Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation say they have a fantastic group of kids playing basketball. "These kids are learning the fundamentals of the game and it's showing," they said.

Both the boys and girls teams won their first games. The boys' score was 33-20, and the girls' score was 47-14. The middle school teams will play in a tournament on February 3 at San Simon.

The staff also noted that volunteer coaches Eric Webber, Javier Gonzales, Mindi Avery, & Maria Espinosa are fantastic and so are Juan Sanchez, Sarah Burgess, and Robert Burgess for officiating and keeping score.
